

“The Most High (God) rules in the kingdom of men...”

The referendum has decided that the UK will leave the EU; this will have a profound effect on the future of this country, Europe and the world beyond. So what does the Bible tell us about this?

Firstly the European Union and the other governments of this world will not last. The Bible tells us that Jesus Christ is coming back to the earth to replace current rulers as God's King ruling from Jerusalem. When that happens other rulers, many of whom the Bible says will oppose Jesus, will be deposed. Another exciting prophecy in Daniel 2 tells of a succession of empires - Babylonian, Persian, Greek and Roman - which were represented by a huge frightening image. This image had a weakness - its feet were part iron and part clay - and it was struck by a stone and destroyed by the coming of Jesus. It may be that the European Union is the last hurrah of these human empires.

present. They tell us about God's plans for individual nations and for the world at large - and these Bible prophecies have a very good track record - God always keeps His word! For example, in Ezekiel's prophecy chapters 26, 27 & 28 there is a detailed prophecy about how Tyre, the fabulously rich city-state whose merchant sailors ruled the Mediterranean Sea, would be attacked, first by the Babylonians soon after the time of Ezekiel and later by the Greek Alexander the Great, who would finally destroy the city completely. The record of how this was all fulfilled makes fascinating reading - and you can still visit the ruins today! It shows that the Bible is no ordinary book, but the inspired word of God.

Secondly, what has happened is part of God's plan. You may be surprised to read that Bible prophecies are not only about the past, but also about the Whatever happens next, God's plan will be fulfilled, so find out more now by reading the Bible!
